“ The Wiggins family we send are deepest condolences. Jeremy was a brother to me. He was loving caring and very very passionate about everything he done, in his schooling, in building guitars and building Harley Davidson's, to being an awesome cook, and in his everyday life. But I know deep in my heart he is now resting in peace. We all are going to miss him dearly. Love you bro. Prayers are being sent from me and my family.

“ I was so fortunate to have spent time with Jeremy, he lived with me and my family for a year and was truly a caring and do right person. I'll never forget when he lived with my family me and him would go to this Mexican restaurant down the street and would have so much fun, I know he truly loved his family because of how much love he showed mine, when my brother passed away 6 years ago he was the first to arrive at the hospital to be with me and my family. I know he is resting in peace. We all love and will miss you. Prayers are being sent from me and my family.

“ Jeremy lived for his family. He took great pride in everything he did for them. He was a proud father. His smile beamed when he spoke of Gabby and the beauty of being a father. I had the privilege to know Jeremy my brother in law and enjoy many of his great meals. He left us to early. I pray to God may he rest in eternal peace.
