In Loving Memory of Jerry Brian Walker

Jerry Brian Walker, 82, of Magnolia, Texas, was called Home to be with the Lord on April 18, 2025. A devoted husband, father, and grandpa, Jerry was a man whose heart overflowed with love for his family, his faith, and the simple joys of life.

Jerry spent many years working in the auto parts industry, where he was known for his work ethic, helpful nature or occasional afternoon nap at his desk. He was always humming, whistling or singing songs ranging from church hymns to Elvis tunes. While knowing all the right words wasn't always his strong suit, it never stopped him from sharing his heart—or making you laugh in the process. Outside of work, he had a deep love for motorcycles, fishing trips, competitive domino games, and just about anything involving his beloved grandkids. He never turned down a plate of Mexican food or a sweet treat preferably from Klein's Grocery store bakery.

Above all, Jerry loved Jesus. His faith guided him in all things and left a lasting impression on those who knew him.

He will be remembered for his warm smile, generous heart, and the countless memories he created with those around him.

Celebration of Life services will be held at Magnolia Church of Christ on May 3, 2025 at 11:00am.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests a donation be made in Jerry's honor to Alzheimer's research. <https://alzfdn.org/donate/>

No services are scheduled through the funeral home.

“ He was the best dad and grandpa anyone could ever ask for. So many things about myself, remind me of him, and that makes me proud.

“ I'll never forget giving grandpa head scratches, especially on his bald spot LOL. He would always groan and say “that feels so good!” over and over and I would sit there continuously scratching away. It's amazing how that man had a full beard and a (almost) full head of hair even in his last days.

When you were little, you would sit on his shoulders and kiss his bald spot. He thought your kisses would make his hair grow back. Hahaha!!!
