Jerry W. Williamson was born in Kemp Texas, to George and Berah Williamson. He graduated high school from Stephen F. Austin in Houston in 1956. After basic training he went to Fleet Sonar school in Key West Florida where he was trained in Sonar techniques anti-submarine warfare. He was on active duty for 2 years, then spent 2 years in the Naval reserves. After being honorably discharged, Jerry worked in the fabrication industry building electrical grounding bus bars until his retirement in 2004.

He married the love of his life, Peggy Cook, on October 24, 1958. They were married for 54 years until she passed in 2013. Peggy and Jerry had 3 daughters, Kim, Lorie and Dana. Jerry enjoyed fishing with family, especially his grandchildren, reading western novels, and playing on slot machines. He also enjoyed watching his beloved Houston Astros, rarely missing a game. Some of the fondest memories from his grandchildren were fishing with pawpaw.
