“ I only met Joanie for the first time last year when Regina and I came for a visit. My take away impression was what a sweet, lovely lady she was and I was so glad that I got to meet her. God bless you and your family. Karen Lehman

“ People who knew Joanie knew that she was creative, caring and generous. She was also a terrific sister to Lorna and I. She housed me and fed me when I was in college without a thought. We shared some fun adventures.

She was also a loving wife and mom. She so loved Adrienne and Elliot. She and Dave had a real partnership and devotion to their relationship. She always spoke so fondly of her brothers in law. She had a bunch of them!

I know she loved her church family. I appreciate all y'all did for her and Dave these past few years. I witnessed the food and cards and visits. She was very grateful and touched.

She also loved her baseball family. That y'all remained such good and true friends was a real blessing to her.

I know I have left some people out but I just want to thank each and everyone who was kind to her. She deserved it.
