

Dr Joe Wall

August 10, 2024

Dr. Joe Layton Wall, age 85 of Georgetown, Texas (formally of Magnolia, Texas), fought the good fight, finished his race, and kept the faith up until he departed to be with his Savior, Jesus Christ, on August 10, 2024.

Joe, also known as PopPop, finally lost his two year battle with esophagus cancer and peacefully went to be with the Lord after having said his goodbyes to his family members.

Joe was born in Dallas, Texas. He is preceded in death by his wife of almost 60 years, Linda; father, Charles (Charlie) Wall; mother, Francis Wall. He is survived by his brother Richard (Dick) Wall and wife Betty; son Scot Wall and wife Darcy; son Christopher Layton Wall and wife Jessica, grandchildren Angel Miller; Marissa (Wall) McCrea and husband Dillon; Caleb Wall and wife Ally; Tyler Joseph Wall, Tommy Layton Wall and great-grandson William Wall.

His goal was to see people come into a relationship with God through His Son Jesus Christ or grow in their service of Him if they had that relationship

To that end, Joe used his gifts of encouragement, vision, and entrepreneurial mind to plant many churches throughout Texas, head up and start several Christian education institutions, and help start and develop worldwide ministries and mission organizations.

But what most people will remember is his love for Jesus, his humble, insightful Bible teaching, and his way of making many individuals feel special through one-on-one discipleship, mentorship, and friendship.

Joe inspired people by both his life and his words to love Jesus and live for Him.

In the last days of his life when asked what he wanted to make sure occurred at his funeral, he simply said, "that Jesus be glorified."

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Wall family during this difficult time.

“ I have known Dr. Joe Wall since 1997. He was my mentor, professor, friend, dissertation advisor, colleague and a Christian leader model to follow. I learned so much from him, and I will keep sharing that with my disciples and students. Thus, his ministry will go on and on. One day I will lay my crown before Jesus' feet next to Joe's.

“ In the book of Hebrews there is a long list of great Christians through the history of time. If the Bible was to be published today, I have no doubt Joe Wall's name would be among them all. As scripture talks about King David being a man after God's own heart, Joe Wall was a living example of what it means to strive for God's heart. The Owens family has been changed generationally because of you. This world has lost but heaven has gained. We miss you but oh the joy you must have to be in the presents of our Lord. We will continue to "go for the gold" and add our crowns at the Lords feet one day! Give my dad a hug!!

“Dr. Joe Wall, our amazing friend of 50 years. Truly a Holy man of God!
So thankful for times together doing Church planting and Missions in Russia and Kazakhstan. Surely the Lord has added Joe and Linda to the Hebrews passage for champions of “Faith.” Their lives truly a testimony for the Glory of the Lord. Looking forward to our Heavenly Reunion.
Much love, Wayne & Andrea Martin
