“ Johnathan was my biological little brother on our dads side. We have different mothers, but it appears we had way too much in common ourselves.. We look alike. We apparently dress alot alike. Always have dark sunglasses on, both about the same size. I did hear that our father, George, had a child with a Korean woman after I was born and way before Johnathan was born. I know nothing whatsoever of that sibling, but, ironically, I was once in Korea myself, while serving in the Marines back in 1989. I narrowly avoided dying in a helicopter crash, because just 2 days before, I replaced a higher ranking Humvee driver that had got in trouble, and we were switched.. Life.. It happens, and it eventually comes to end. I do pray Johnathan found Jesus! 🙌🕊️🙏
Peace lil Brother. We will meet again..

“ I first met John while he was attending Dillingham Jr High in Sherman Tx. I believe he was in the 6th grade and I drove his school bus.

He instantly caught my attention because he and my son have the same type of personality. Always joking around, never met anyone he couldn't talk with or put a smile on they're face with his antics. He always sat in the very back of the bus and would ride his skateboard to the front to get off. Yes, I let him because it hurt nothing.

He has left everlasting memories with me and will never be forgotten.

My deepest heartfelt condolences to the family and prayers of strength.

“ John lived and played hard! He was a kind hearted person who loved those close to him deeply (family and friends). John could make me laugh like crazy. I got his sense of humor. I will miss him so much more than I can say. I loved his craziness. He loved his wife and kids so much and my heart breaks for them. John, these last few weeks have been tough...tough on your body and tough on us around you. I thought you were going to pull through. :(I am glad I got to be there and tell you good-bye and hold your hand and then hold Heather for you. You will be missed by so many little brother. I love you forever! Your sister, Katrina Lynn
