

Joseph Russell "Rusty" Cobb

May 26, 2025

Joseph Russell Cobb, "Rusty", was born in Houston to parents Russell & Theresa Cobb. From his earliest days he was an "escape artist" with more tricks than Houdini, which kept Mom & Dad on their toes. Rusty excelled in sports, especially baseball and was a regular pick in local all Star teams.

As he grew into his teenage years, trucks became his passion, especially Ford Diesel trucks and basically self-taught, he developed into a top Diesel Mechanic and the "go-to" guy or "Diesel Guru" for family & friends. Rusty was "that guy", the guy who stops on a country road to pull a stranger out of the ditch, fix a flat or give a boost. After working at several local & national automotive shops, he was hired by Charlie Martin of Martin Motion in Tomball. Rusty felt at home there, fit like a glove and met the love of his life, Charlie's daughter Lauren, soon they both gave us all a gift with the birth of their son Miles.

Rusty, loved going to the deer lease, he was an avid hunter & fisherman and if you were up for a trip to the river or the lake, well, Rusty was your man, he was never happier than when he was on the water with friends & family.

A much-loved son, a father, a brother, a proud uncle, and a lifelong friend to many, he will be sorely missed.

Rusty was predeceased, by grandparents Joseph & Ruth Pulitano, his father Russell and his beloved fiancée Lauren. He is survived by grandparents, Neil & Wanda Cobb, his Mother, Theresa Meldrum (Ronnie), siblings, Theresa Hinman (Ross), Charles Root (Rhiannon), Tyler Cobb & Andrew Meldrum (Klara), nieces Angelina, Allyah, Savannah, Athena, nephew Julian and his beautiful son, Miles.

Rusty was a country boy, the life & soul of the party and was never without that mischievous smile of his. As he looks down on us from above, he would want everyone here to remember him by a simple sentence, in the words of Kip Moore, "Ain't nothin' bout it luck, There's somethin' bout a truck"!

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Rusty's family and friends during this difficult time.

“ Rusty, my heart is so sad you're gone! I wish I had one last phone call with you just to remind you that you were enough! Thank you for always making me laugh, and being there for not only me but everyone around you! You had a laugh that was contagious. There is definitely a piece missing in our lives. Just know you will be so missed! Fly high and watch over your sweet family. Until we meet again!

“Rusty was always the life of any party he wandered into. He loved being with his friends and family and always gave hugs that were a little too tight but amazing. My heart shatters knowing that I will never hear his laugh again or his “my name is Jeff” and run away.
