

Josephine Chambers

December 2, 2022

Josephine passed away on December 2, 2022, 7 years almost to the day her baby boy (husband) Troy Chambers passed on December 3, 2015. They were married 60 years. She was born in Houston, TX on October 24, 1937 to Marion Leago and Rosalie Boykin.

Josephine, also known as mom, mammaw and Jo worked as a cafeteria manager for a junior high for 27 years. Many kids came through her line just to say hi and get a hug. She was notorious for overfilling fries or buying meals for those less fortunate. Jo dedicated her life to being the best wife, mom, mammaw, and great grandma ever.

In addition to her parents and husband, she is preceded in death by her grandson, Christopher Krause, sister-in-law, Shirley Leago, and son-in-law, Michael Garrett.

She is survived by her brother Jasper Leago, sister Mary Francis Burks and husband Kenny, brother Richard Boykin, daughter Peggy Garrett; daughter, Patricia Oliver and husband Russell; granddaughter, Kim Cavazos; and great grandchildren, Christopher James Krause, Brooke Krause, and Avery Cavazos. Also many beloved nieces and nephews.

Jo had the biggest heart and smile that lit up any room she was in. She would help anyone in a heart beat. Her kind soul and heart will never be forgotten.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Chambers family during this difficult time.

“ Jo was a dear friend I will always remember the good old days ,we were neighbors and friends. Our families had fish fries together, bought Lake lots beside each other. We went shopping together with our daughters and she loved to stop at What-a burger and Michaels. Jo loved cookbooks, collected salt and pepper shakers and Loved Elvis Presley! I took her some Elvis albums and plates during the pandemic. She loved them! also years ago I had found her Elvis S&P shakers. she said he was beautiful . She loved her girls so much and especially her little great granddaughter. Wish we had just one more day but glad she is out of any pain and resting in peace. I will remember you forever Jo and your great laugh. RIP

“ We are heart broken with the loss of my precious sister known to me and my husband & Kids as (Sissy/aunt Sissy) she was a unique person with a heart of gold, everyone who meet her loved her ! It's like losing a another Mom and I'm going to miss her terribly but I am comforted with knowing she received Jesus years ago in a church service that we all attended together. I know she has been received in the arms of Jesus and has been made whole & healed and have been reunited with her husband, Mama, grandson & other family members that have gone on before her ! Until we meet again love you Sissy and will always remember your thoughtfulness and love for the family

“ Condolences to my Texas family. My aunt Jo, I'll never forget our talks, especially our laughs together. Of course there's a void in our hearts that you're gone, but knowing you're in a better place, no more suffering, and to know we'll meet again someday gives us hope, comfort. I love you, God bless you aunt Jo. Your nephew Kevin.
