

Kathleen Starcher

July 15, 2025

Kathleen "Kathi" Starcher, age 70 of Magnolia, passed away July 15, 2025. Mom loved life and loved her family and friends. She had her share of health problems, but she always thought of everyone and always wanted to be with them. Even when her memory was failing, she still would remember everyone when you asked her. She was born in Germany on a military base and the family moved to North Carolina. They moved to Houston after that and stayed there. Mom worked at Cameron Iron Works in the 1970's. Later she worked at Superior Water Beds for a short time before getting a job as a Paralegal at Shell Oil Co. She worked there from 1985-1999 when she retired. She started her own website design business in 2000 and ran it successfully until about 2009 when her health wouldn't permit her to continue. She begrudgingly accepted retirement and was happily taken care of by her children until she passed. She was a wonderful, Beautiful Soul, and will be greatly missed by many.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Kathleen's family and friends during this difficult time.

“Kathi worked for me at Shell, and was a loyal, faithful employee. Hard work and persistence were in her nature, and I admired her for that. She acknowledged that her life was not very easy, but that did not slow her down.

She surprised me one day, telling me she had changed the carburetor on her truck, a skill that I certainly did not have. Kathi was self-taught, and did not fear tackling new challenges. She was especially interested in new technologies at work, was a very helpful to many others. She was a hard working, determined woman, with a heart of gold and “salt of the earth” wisdom. She will be missed.
