“ When I was very young, my mother (Catherine Scardino Vairin), used to show me pictures of him in the newspaper from his Jesuit High School days.

Later, when I was attending LSU, I was sitting in my counselor's office and opened up a year book by accident to the football team and saw his name.

For many years after graduation, people in New Orleans often called me to talk to "Stick" thinking I was him.

I tried in the past to track him down, but was never able to do so. I viewed his tribute video and it is obvious he enjoyed life and loved his family.

My deepest sympathies to the Texas Vairin Family and will keep you in my prayers.
