

Lance Bernard

July 6, 2023

Funeral services will be held for Lance Christopher Bernard born November 14, 1968, who passed away peacefully surrounded by his family in Hockley, TX on Thursday July 6, 2023.

Lance was preceded in death by his father Leonce Charles (L.C.) Bernard, mother Rose Marie - Mayer Bernard, brother Leonce Charles (Chuck) Bernard and sister Lori Catherine (Cathy) Bernard. He is survived by his daughter Cecillia (CiCi) Rose York-Bernard, brother Shane Bernard and wife Cindy Bernard. His sister Cherie Vaello and husband Mike Vaello. His sister Chookie Diaz and husband Jorge Diaz. His nieces and nephews; Erick Bernard (Lil Bro) and wife Theresa Bernard, Misty Bakies and husband Matthew Bakies, Jessica Danenhauer, Amy Richards and husband Zach Westmoreland, Kim Bernard and husband Robbie (Luke) Bussard, Paige Bernard, Caitlin Campbell and husband Wesley Campbell, Dalton Hoffart, Lia Danenhauer, Ellie Danenhauer, Branton Bakies and Lakeston Bakies. In Lance's career he quickly learned hospital utility and maintenance functions, leading his team of engineers to ensure optimum performance as a Corporate Director of Facilities Maintenance in the Greater Houston Area. Often forgoing pleasure to make certain that his hospital and his team were well attended to in a fair and unselfish manner.

Lance's personal interest included mechanics and car remodeling, yard decorations, building art out of scrap metal, his tattoo designs, shooting, music and sports (Astros, Rockets and Texans) and Harley Davidsons.

When he was younger, he excelled as a baseball catcher and was awarded MVP in the little league football championship at the Superdome.

The family would like to extend their sincere thanks and appreciation to the nurses and staff of Heart-to-Heart Hospice of Houston, for their compassionate care given to him during this time of need.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Bernard family during this difficult time.
