“ Leo Wells was my Grandfather and I lived right next door too him for almost my entire life. He's was the most generous fun loving man anyone ever met and he was always laughing and joking with people whenever he got a chance. I feel so very lucky to be able to say he was my Grandfather but more than that he was my best friend. If one day when I'm gone I can be half the man he was I would've lived a complete and full life. I can't wait to see him again and hear that laugh I miss so much, love you Pawpaw.
