“ My Uncle Mac was many things to our family. He and his family sacrificed so much by being gone all those military years. My family is so grateful for his service to this country. He taught us what it means and how to volunteer and give back by his dedication to the Clovis High Music bingo program and volunteering in their church thrift store. He taught us the song, “The Old Slimy Toothbrush”, much to my Aunts dismay and I have taught to my grandchildren. When I was a young girl he took me bogie boarding when they lived in San Clemente. I was thrilled my Uncle got in the ocean with me. He was instrumental in getting the extended family together for Easter and Christmas celebrations. I think he enjoyed the white elephant exchange as much as the food. He was a true gentleman, always remembering my Mother with a See’s candy gift or some other gift.

We were blessed to visit my Uncle and Aunt a few years ago and I will always cherish those memories. He had a loving and gentle spirit. He was loved by us.

Thank you Monty for sharing your sweet memories. And I remember those fun times we had in Avila and the mountains and just family get-togethers. God truly blessed us with 66 years together and I am thankful for His continued care. ❤️

“ Uncle Mac, you were dearly loved and will be so missed by so many. When I was a kid I remember looking up at you in such adoration, you were gentle with me and a wonderfully kind man. I have so many fond memories of Easter, Christmas, summer break trips with Grandma, visiting you and Aunt Fern and all the cousins. Distance and life has caused a lot of drift, but I will always hold so much love for all of our family and the memories we made. Thank you for being a part of my life. I love you.

Sending love to all of you out there who will be missing him so much.

Love, Kristy

“ My sweet Uncle Mac as he was known to us sent me a bouquet of anthuriums when my first child was born...all the way from Hawaii!!!! I had never seen anything so beautiful or exotic. I am so grateful for the years I had with my U. Mac and A. Fern.

Thank you for that memory (I had forgotten that). And, yes, that was how important all family matters were to my beloved Mac. And I am thankful for the years we had together until I am with him again. God is good! ❤️
