Heaven gained another Angel!

In Loving Memory: Linda Sue Hagemier Guerrero

Linda, my beloved wife departed from our midst on April 24th, 2024 leaving behind a legacy of warmth, kindness, and inspiration. She was a cherished wife, mother, sister and friend to her family, a loyal friend, and a beacon of light to all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Born in Bedford, Indiana to Mary Jane Noe and Harold Hagemier. Linda embarked on a journey marked by resilience, passion, and unwavering optimism. She navigated life's highs and lows with grace, courage, and spirit that touched the hearts of everyone she encountered.

Linda was known for her boundless generosity, always extending a helping hand to those in need and sharing her wisdom and compassion without reservation. She approached every challenge with determination and integrity.

Throughout her life, Linda cultivated deep and meaningful relationships, fostering connections that transcended boundaries of distance and time. Her presence brought joy and laughter to countless gatherings, and her absence will be felt by all who had the privilege of sharing in her company.

Linda leaves behind her beloved family and friends who will forever cherish her memory and carry forward her legacy of love, strength, and compassion. Though her physical presence may no longer grace our lives, her spirit will continue to live on in the hearts and minds of those she touched.

In honoring Linda's memory, let us celebrate her life and the profound impact she had on all who knew her. May she rest in eternal peace, knowing that her legacy will endure as a testament to the power of love, kindness, and courage.

Linda,

Thank you for the many years of friendship. Having you in my life has been a blessing and I am so appreciative of the person you are. You have always been there to watch over me and gently put me back on track when I was going off course. I will miss your smile, your voice, and your laughter. I am so thankful that every visit or phone call ended with I love you. You have been a mom, a sister, a friend, but most of all, family. You will forever have a place in my heart. I love you.
