

Lloyd Steward

January 24, 2025

Lloyd Jennings Steward, 92, Loving Husband, Father, Grandfather, and Great Grandfather, reluctantly left us on Jan 24, 2025, joining his wife Edna to rest in the loving embrace of their savior Jesus. Dad, we are loath to let you go but grateful for the wealth of happy memories you left in the wake of a long and storied life.

Born in Columbus, Ohio, Lloyd served in the US Army's 3rd armored division--"Hell on Wheels"--during the Korean war. He went on to work in the defense industry, the oil patch, and eventually founded Guardian Business Services with his Edna near Spring, Texas. After retiring he lovingly shepherded his wife through a long and difficult illness, then filled his days as a greeter for Home Depot, forever kind and ready to lend a hand. Prior to that, as founder and CEO of the "Too Much Fun Club", in his spare time he could be found piling any number of kids, friends and neighbors into his boat or RV, ABBA or the Tijuana Brass often playing in the background. He was full of life, humor, and grit; around him everything was fun if not riotous, and there was always another adventure to be had. He had a warm, easy laugh and a fine strut to his walk; as we all liked to say, "It was Lloyd's world; the rest of us are just living in it." And happily so.

Lloyd is survived by nine amazing children; Guy, Pamela, Valerie, Lesa, Rose, Cindy, Bill, Keith, and Melanie; plus a formidable army of devoted son's and daughter's in law, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Thank you for everything, Dad. You loved us, and you were well-loved back. We will carry you in our hearts always and All Ways, until we meet again.

The family will be gather around the grave to witness his burial and share memories on Saturday, February 8th, at 9:45 am at Magnolia Memorial Gardens, adjacent to Magnolia Funeral Home, located at 811 Magnolia Blvd., Magnolia, Texas 77355.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Lloyd's family and friends during this difficult time.

ME

“ I am crying every day. Sometimes because I am sad you are gone, other times because I am so happy you are no longer in pain and you are safely in the arms of Jesus. You have been in my life since I was 8 years old, and our relationship has been an interesting journey; full of fun, laughter, frustration, long discussions, disagreements, reconciliations, forgiveness, but in it all was lots of love. I think camping with you and mom holds some of the best memories with you. Life on the farm in Oklahoma was special! As you got older, these past few years, I am grateful we spent time together watching "Nashville" and having dinner, or watching other movies. Playing Bingo at the Heritage every Wednesday. Going on the senior citizen field trips, like to Galveston on your birthday to cruise the bay and have lunch, and going to Hemi's Hideout looking at vintage cars. Brett, you and I going to the Astros game, your first time and you were in your 80's. I loved watching you take care of Mom while she was sick, and how nurturing you were to her. These are just a few moments in time. I will miss you and your silly sense of humor, your special way of making me feel important, your appreciation for my help as you aged and your illnesses overtook you, and the love you had for our family. Rest now, good and faithful soul as God has called you home. Until we see you again....

“ As many of you know, I called him Honey when I was little because I heard Aunt Edna call him that and I thought that was his name. It stuck. I have memories of riding on the lawn mower with him (the only time I enjoyed mowing the lawn), tying the end of his socks in a knot (pony socks) while he tried to relax in his chair, and laughing hysterically, water skiing with him, riding in the RV and hearing him say, "Tracy Beau", in that loving way that he would say it. His chuckle always made me smile. I don't recall him ever being anything but kind and patient even when I was trying to pester him. I will treasure the moments with him through the years and wish I had been able to see him and all of you more often. I love you Honey!
