

Lucy McIntosh

January 11, 2025

Lucy N. McIntosh was born in Falfurrias, Texas, to Ramon and Maria Guerra. She died on January 11, 2025. She was 82. She is preceded in death by her best friend, and the love of her life, her husband, Roy L. McIntosh Jr., she would always talk about the travel, adventures and laughter they shared together. She missed him greatly.

Lucy loved life and especially being with her family, her children, her grandchildren, and her great-grandchildren. She was always there to help or sooth with an uplifting word, sound advice, or a tight hug. She simply had a knack for saying just the right thing, when you needed it the most. She was selfless in a way that is a mother's heart. Always thinking of others before herself. An example is how she always brought a mountain of gifts for everyone at Christmas time. And we do mean a mountain! Each one beautifully wrapped with words of love on the tag. We would all say to her "we have everything we need Mom, please go spend your money on you, enjoy it for yourself". She would say "No, it makes me happy to see you all happy", That was her in a nutshell. We are so grateful and blessed to have had such a wonderful mother.

She had a curious mind and many talents. She was an accomplished baker who made many of the family's wedding cakes over the years. Beautifully decorated cakes. With some being six feet tall with fountains in the middle.

She also loved painting, gardening, cooking, and she had a do-it-yourself kind of spirit with a mechanical mind. And could fix and build so many things around the house. She also loved animals, a trait she picked up from her father. She saved, and took in so many animals over the years. And had many beloved pets always by her side. She was amazing in so many ways. She will forever be missed by all who loved her.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory. Her children, Carla, Robert, Melissa, David, and their spouses, her grandchildren, and her great grandchildren.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the McIntosh family during this difficult time.

“ It’s been one year Grandma.. and grief is weird. I feel like I’m selfish in the grief. I see so many people who grandmas are your age or older and I just get so mad at the world because I just wish you were here but also filled with so much joy that they still have their grandma, that they don’t know the feeling of not. I wish I would’ve and could’ve been there more. I’m so sorry grandma. So much has happened. I perfected your meat and potatoes recipe, that one was rough. Not being able to call you and ask what I’m missing. It was Cumin. Can’t forget the Cumin. The kids are so big now! As you would say “they’re growing like a weed.” We talk about you often and the kids helped decorate the tree with the ornaments.. they had lots of fun. There was also an owl one.. which felt like a sign. We all miss you so much. Hard to believe it was a year. You are and will always be the best grandma and GREAT grandma. Keep watching over my little family. With love and lots more love - Miranda 🧡

“ Dear Cousins Carla, Robert, Melissa, and David...Sending you my most heartfelt condolences and hugs on the loss of your mom Lucy who was like an older cousin rather than an aunt to me being my mom's youngest sister and only three years older than me! I remember when together with your dad Roy, she would visit us when they were recently married and take me and 2 or 3 of my siblings for joy rides in his '57 hot rod Chevy...we had fun times as part of your Mom & Dad's adventures back in the day...Sorry I can't be there today to see ya'll in person but I want you to know that Lucy is always a part of my memories and I regret not seeing her more recently before her passing...Nevertheless, send you all my best wishes for the future and maybe see some of you soon...Cousin Andy Ugarte

“ The Ugarte family expresses their deepest condolences for the passing of your beloved mom and our aunt. She was the youngest sister of our mother who was the oldest in her family. Some of us are close in age to you mother so growing up she was more of a cousin than an aunt. Our hearts and prayers are with you. Michael Ugarte. San Antonio, Texas.

“ Grandma, I miss you so much. I miss seeing you with your babies and walking up to my house, hearing you say “Hi beautiful”. You always made me feel like I was doing an awesome job even when sometimes I felt so overwhelmed and tired. You had the best advice, you knew how to calm me down. I love you so much, I know you will always be with us. Thank you for being an example of a strong woman, you were such a force and I will try to be as strong as you always were.

“ My sweet sweet grandma,
When I think of her I think of home and peace. I'm so beyond blessed to have had a grandma like her. She played a big part in raising me. She taught me manners, respect, and how to be a lady. She would wake me up for school and make whatever I wanted for breakfast. She made sure my outfits were nice and my hair sat perfect. She'd comfort me in sadness and cheer me on in my successes. I'm so glad to have so many memories to look back on and I will cherish those for the rest of my life. I'm so glad to have asked and learned my favorite recipes she would make for me, even though there's nothing like my grandma's cooking; I find peace in knowing that whenever I miss her the most, she is there to comfort me in her recipes. I hope I made you proud grandma. I never prepared myself for this day because superheroes aren't suppose to die and I know people don't live forever but what I wouldn't do so that you could. I'm not sure where to go from here or how I'll navigate life without you. Heaven is so lucky to have you. I love you grandma. I hope you get to be my grandma in every lifetime.

“ My beautiful Gmac, you were so incredibly loved by all who knew you. Although it does not feel real to me yet, I know Grandpa and many others were there to greet you with hugs and laughter. I am missing you so much. You taught me to “be like water” to “go with the flow” and I will continue to try to live that way. Thank you for helping raise me. With love and lots more love
