

Margaret Andreatta

July 13, 1929 - May 26, 2022

Margaret Pauline Andreatta, age 92, of Magnolia, Texas, passed away at her assisted living facility on Thursday, May 26, 2022, after an extended illness. Born on July 13, 1929, in Newport, Ohio, she was the daughter of Foster and Mary (Stossel) Kilpatrick. Margaret graduated from Uhrichsville High School in 1946. After her marriage, Margaret and her husband, Fred moved to Columbus, Ohio. She worked as a secretary for an insurance agency, while Fred completed his final year at Ohio State University.

Margaret's career of choice was rearing her three children and providing a good home for them. She was an excellent cook and baker. After retiring to Florida, Margaret enjoyed biking, aerobics, and line dancing. She and Fred helped with the St. Vincent de Paul ministry at their church. They also helped with Habitat for Humanity.

In 2000, Margaret and Fred moved to Magnolia, Texas, to be near their daughter and her family. She and Fred started each day by taking a long walk together before breakfast. They enjoyed traveling to several states to visit their sons and extended family. Margaret was a long time member of the congregation at St. Matthias the Apostle Catholic Church. She brought great joy and laughter to the staff and residents at Harvest Home Assisted Living, where she spent the last three years of her life.

Margaret cherished her roles as wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She will be missed by all of us who knew and loved her.
