Mark Christian Azar

May 20, 1960 – November 10, 2025

With deep love and very heavy hearts, we share the passing of Mark Christian Azar, who left this world peacefully in his sleep on November 10, 2025. Born May 20, 1960, in Columbus, Ohio, Mark lived a life as big, bold, and unforgettable as the man himself. We're sure if there was a line to Heaven, he's already made his way to the front, flashed a limo card to get into VIP and explained how he's looking for his sister and is positive she's in there.

From the time he was a kid selling candy to classmates, Mark had a gift for connecting with people. He could spark a conversation with anyone, brighten a day without trying, and turn complete strangers into instant friends. His presence hit you the second he walked into the room warm, loud, hilarious, mischievous, and full of life.

Mark's biggest strength was his heart. He loved deeply without hesitation. His hugs could make you feel safe, his jokes could pull you out of the darkest moment, and his loyalty made everyone feel like they mattered. Whether you knew him for ten years or ten minutes, you walked away with a smile and a very interesting story.

He lived freely and fearlessly laughing, stirring things up, bending the rules, and making memories people will be telling for generations. He moved through life with a spirit uniquely his: wild, loving, loud, stubborn, generous, slightly inappropriate, and somehow always well-intentioned.

Mark surely had a grand welcome in heaven, reuniting with his father, Philip H. Azar; mother, Darlene Conrad Azar Rubinoff; three brothers Phil, Mike, and Jimmy; and his sweet sister, Dolly.

This is where he's undoubtedly catching everyone up, retelling stories with a few "creative edits," and organizing something that probably wasn't on Heaven's agenda.

Mark was many things to many people, but his proudest titles were Dad and Poppa. To his children Mark, Michael, Jake, Philip, and Miranda, he was a larger than life source of love, chaos, wisdom, and "Markisms." To his grandchildren Alexys, Lynkinn, Blayden, Easton, and Jake he was "Poppa," their hero, their spoiler-in-chief, and the man who never said no (and definitely said yes when he shouldn't have).

He also leaves behind a family he loved deeply his sister's Diane and Delores, his Aunt Nancy, a brother Robert, his other "sister" Kathy, numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family, and even exes and ex-in-laws; who all held a special place in his enormous heart. If you were related to Mark, even loosely, he claimed you proudly forever.

Mark loved togetherness more than anything. His two favorite songs were "Celebrate" and "We are Family" which both make perfect sense, because he believed life was supposed to be loud, joyful, and celebrated with the people you love. And like his favorite color, yellow, he brought brightness, warmth, and light everywhere he went.

His legacy is laughter, wild stories, unforgettable moments, and love that reached everyone lucky enough to know him. The space he filled in this world can never be replaced.

He will be loved forever and remembered with a smile.

"They lied to me! They told me I wouldn't see an angel today."

-Mark C. Azar

“ Mark,
Priest Chris N. made a visit for prayer & blessings in your honor. I do hope it brings peace & love to all those in your legacy.

And I light a rose colored candle, Guadalupe, in your honor & memory on St. Valentine's Day. Man, if you were still here no telling what shenanigans you'd be pulling. 🥰🙌

Luv u always,
Your 'sister'-in-law & brother

“ I light a candle in honor of Mark but also in honor and remembrance of Great-great, Mike, Dolly, Phil and Jimmy. I loved them all. Bobby loved them all. May Mark's son's, as well as extended family, find peace and love in their hearts- not hatred, not division. Mark's last words were, "I appreciate you." This carried more weight than, 'I love you.' Eternally grateful 🙏
Respectfully and with love,
-Erica

“ I have soooo many Wonderful memories of Mark and !! All the trouble we got into! The parties we would go to! Mark was my Body Guard....when I was at a party with my cousin Mark NO man was coming near me! When I was with Mark there was No hope finding a Boyfriend when out with him! No Man was getting past my BIG Sweet Body Guard Cousin Mark!! My heart is broken cousin. You had just called me not long ago and left me a message on my phone. I can hear your voice on my phone now! Love you with all my heart Mark. I know you are having a party in heaven right now with your sweet parents and my Aunt Darlene and Uncle Philprobably making pizzas! Catching up with your sweet sister Dolly, your brothers Philip, Mike and Jimmy. One day we will meet again soon! Save me a seat next to you at the table my handsome cousin ❤️. Go rest High on that Mountain. I will see you on the other side Mark Azar! Love you with all my heart ❤️
