“ Martin was a force whose memory I shall not forgot. He had the courage to make a stand and follow through. He projected this into the world and inspired others to not just speak up, but act. He wore the armor of God, I am sure of it. I will miss this man, but know his soul is working for the world in spirit and likely getting it done. Thank you Martin! "Resting in Peace" is not something I believe he is doing now...carry on friend. We are following your Earthly lead!
