“ Mary,

Such sad, sad news. Your mother was so fortunate to have you caring for her during her illness. My deepest sympathies to you and your family.

“ Mary,

Please know that you are in the thoughts and prayers of many. It was a long journey for your mother, but she is home and at peace. You are such a wonderful daughter and I know that she is so proud of you.

“ Mary, you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers here. The person you have turned out to be is by far the greatest tribute to a Mother who clearly did well in her mission here on earth. When you get time look up Rev. 21:4.

“ Mary,

During this time, there is not much a person can say or do to make the pain of losing a loved one, especially a parent, less, but know if there is anything I can do, please don't hesitate to ask. My deepest condolences to you and your family.

“ Mary:

Your relationship with your Mom was a close and special one which was a blessing. She is free from pain now and is smiling down on you for many reasons, but one important one was that you were there for her. Your family is in my prayers.
