

Maryann Fourniquet

February 4, 2026

Maryann Fourniquet entered the presence of the Lord February 4, 2026 at the age of 85.

Maryann, a faithful servant of the Lord, was born in Houston, Tx. She was born to be strong, as she was the youngest of seven children. She grew up feisty and faster than a girl should have to. Maryann was a mother of two, a grandy of 5, and a great-grandmother of 6. Most of her days were spent being a devoted mother and wife. Aside from being a homemaker, Maryann enjoyed baking, cooking and most of all gardening. She loved spending time with family and friends by cutting up and making silly jokes, although at times, inappropriate in timing and/or nature. Mostly, Maryann was silly and quite outspoken, but always herself no matter what, like it or leave it. Inspired by faith, she volunteered at her church, her children's school, and various organizations throughout her community.

Maryann was survived by her son, Eric and wife, Amanda; Grandchildren, Magen and husband, Dustin, Anthony and wife, Chyann, Elijah "Eli" and wife, Fallon, and Evelyn "Evé" and boyfriend, Jake; Great-Grandchildren, Layla, Casten, Nixie, Everlee, Hardy, and Emmet. She has been reunited with her parents, Ruby and Beatrice McBee; Daughter, Leslie; Grandson, Caleb; and all six of her siblings.

We are comforted in the promise of eternal life. From your family: May you rest in peace, Mom/Goofy Grandy

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Fourniquet family and friends during this difficult time.
