“ I met the Yancey family 43 years ago. I experienced their lives through holidays, endearing times, and heartfelt memories. We kept in contact for years until I moved out of the country. Upon my return my mail was returned and I was not able to reach them. I learned today of Millie and Stan's passing with sadness. Fond memories and prayers always.

“ Millie and Stan were my Mother and Dad’s next door neighbors at Watercrest in Bryan. They moved in at the same time in 2019. Millie was so friendly and visited often to check on my parents even though she had health issues of her own. She was a kind, caring lady that was appreciated and loved. God bless this family.

“ *Stan & Family,
Millie was my best friend. We always had so much fun whenever we were together. Zac and my trips to Arkansas still have so many wonderful memories and we've talked about them often. I will miss my sweet friend and our long phone visits after she and Stan moved to College Station. Rest now my sweet Millie . God just got him an Angel who can take care of the phone system in Heaven.
