

Monica Daniella Santillano

December 6, 2021

Monica (Moni) Daniella Santillano was born on August 28, 1990 in Long Beach, CA to Paulita and Ernesto Santillano and passed on December 6, 2021 in Houston, TX. She is survived by her husband Adam, mother Paulita, Joe (step-father), and grandmother Martha and many special friends.

She went to United South High and LCC in Laredo, TX. She moved to Houston, TX in 2015 and worked at Home Depot where she met her husband. She collected copper flowers from the Ren. Fest along with magnets from anywhere she traveled to as well as anything with Jack Skellington or Harry Potter.

She always had a beautiful soul and a gorgeous smile and could make friends with anyone within a few minutes. She would go out of her way to help anyone and will be sorely missed.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Monica's family and friends during this difficult time.

“ I met Monica while working at Home Depot. We would exchange I get no respect from Rodney Dangerfield quotes and I also would share my flying experiences with her as well. As we always say to a fellow aviator that has departed, Clear Skies and Tail Winds! Until we meet again, Valhalla!
