

Monique Majeune O'Hara

May 26, 2015

Monique passed away suddenly at her home. She was the widow of James O'Hara. For the past 6 years she was a dog trainer at Magnolia PetSmart. She enjoyed her work and spoke fondly of her associates, the dog parents she worked with and especially her dog students. Her love of animals began at Les Chalets Francais in Maine where she was an instructor of horseback riding and dressage. Some of her happiest times were with her husband Jimmy at their ranch in Rifle, Colorado with their horses, cows, goats and chickens. She shared her Magnolia home with her dogs Gracie, Owen and Tank and her cat of 16 years, Mister.

Monique attended Morgan Park Academy in Chicago, The Dwight Englewood School, class of 1979 in Englewood N.J. As a student at Boston University she interned with station WBCN. She lived in Aspen, Colorado for twenty years where she loved the mountains and skiing.

Monique is survived by her mother, Joan Majeune and sisters Renee and Michele Majeune of Colorado, brother Paul Majeune of New Jersey, Brother in law Renny Fagan , nephews Riley Majeune Fagan of Colorado, Matthew Majeune Fagan and wife Katie of Texas, nephew Logan Majeune and wife Destiny and baby AvaLynn of Oklahoma. Her beloved nephew Parker Majeune, preceded her in death. Monique is also survived by members of her late husband's family. She moved to Texas after Jimmy's death to be near Jimmy's family who supported her in her grief.

Monique was a caring person who often lent a helping hand to a friend in need. Monique was a bright spot of family gatherings and among friends.
