

Nancy Verini

April 3, 2021

PLEASE NOTE THAT ALL FLORAL DELIVERIES SHOULD BE TAKEN DIRECTLY TO THE CHURCH THE MORNING OF THE MEMORIAL MASS ON APRIL 29TH.

Nancy Verini, 91, of The Woodlands, Texas, passed away on April 3rd, and is at Peace with the Lord.

She is survived by son, Dominick Verini, of Spring, Texas, and daughter and son-in-law, Joan and Paul Babcock of The Woodlands, Texas, her three grandsons and spouses - Chris Babcock and Chrissy Lowe of Alexandria (VA.), Gregory and Jaclyn Babcock of the Woodlands, Michael and Teresa Babcock of Cedar Park (TX), sister, and best friend, Jean Zanni of Massapequa (NY) and brother Joseph Nuzzi of Florida. She also cherished her seven great grandchildren - Weston, Coleson, Allyson, Audrey, Andrew, Adam and Zachary. Nancy's three grandsons and seven great grandchildren were the light in her eyes.

Nancy was part of the greatest generation. Life was not always easy for her, but she worked hard her entire life and single-handedly raised two children, Joan and Dominick. She worked as a bookkeeper after high school starting with the Knott hotel chain in New York City. She later worked, and ultimately retired in 1989 from the U.S. Postal Service, where she was also a union officer. She grew up in the Bronx (NY), and was an ardent Yankee fan and got to meet Joe DiMaggio, her childhood idol. Later she became a diehard Mets fan, and ultimately an Astros fan.

She was the matriarch of a loving family.

Nancy will be dearly missed, but is now at Peace with the Lord

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Nancy's family and friends during this difficult time.
