

Nannette Szajko

March 1, 2013

Nannette Kaye Szajko of Magnolia, Texas, the most wonderful mother, passed away on Friday, March 1, 2013 at 67 years old.

She was born on January 17, 1946 in South Bend, Indiana to the late Edward and Esther (Morenc) Szajko. She is survived by her sister, Lynette Skarich of Clio Michigan; four children, Lisa Laverty, Jeff Dobrucki, Jennifer Smitherman, and Jason Dobrucki along with seven grandchildren: Nicole, Jaclyn, Alison, Zachary, Harrison, Jacob, and Shaylin. All currently residing in Texas.

Nannette attended St. Hedwig Parish, graduated from St. Joseph High School in South Bend in 1963, and graduated from Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas in 1989 with a BS degree in Criminal Justice. She worked in many fields including veterinary medicine, social work, and retail management. She was an avid gardener, reader, and musician. She also enjoyed photography, vacations to the beach, horseback riding, and raising many different kinds of animals. She was a very devoted mother, grandmother, and friend who will be deeply missed.

A "Celebration of Life Memorial" will be held on Saturday, March 9, 2013 at 5:00 PM at 1425 Ulrich Road, Tomball, TX 77375.