

Nelda Ann Ruiz

January 24, 1954 - June 7, 2024

Nelda Ann Ruiz, age 70 of Houston, was called home to Heaven on June 7, 2024. She was born on January 24, 1954 in Robstown, TX. Her life is a testament of dedication to her family, diligent work ethic, and boundless capacity for love. She enjoyed cooking, the outdoors, sewing, fishing, a good musical or romantic movie, and loved the Astros.

Nelda's family rejoices with her as she is reunited with her parents Beatrice Ysasi and Paul Ramos; sister Delma Ramos; nephew Nicholas E. Valdez and niece Danielle Vargas. She joins them with angel wings, dancing on streets of gold.

Nelda's legacy on earth includes her daughters Laura Longacre (David) and Naomi Ruiz, from her marriage to Henry Ruiz; grandchildren Carlee Campbell, William Campbell, Henry Longacre, Olivia Longacre; sisters Vilma Garcia, Nilda Cantu (Ben); sisters-in-law Minerva Lopez (Ramiro), Annette Elliott (Farrell); goddaughter Amie Gray; and lifelong friend Melba Zamora, along with numerous nephews, nieces, great-nephews, great-nieces, extended family, and friends.

In lieu of a traditional service, plans to celebrate her life will be provided at a future date. In the meantime, watch an Astros game and know she is cheering right beside you.

All memories and expressions of sympathy are welcomed to be shared at www.MagnoliaFunerals.com

Tribute Wall

NC

“ Happy Heavenly Birthday Sister I MISS YOU SO MUCH my Heart is so Broken without you But I know you are not in Pain any more and you are as Happy as can Be Love You always 🥹🥹🥹

Nilda Cantu - January 22, 2025 at 10:56 PM

JG

“ My condolences to family my name is Jennifer I work with her at Heb lot of years, She was like my mom at the store I will miss her so much. Jennifer Gutierrez.

Jennifer J Gutierrez - July 09, 2024 at 01:15 AM

GR

“ Thank you for not only being my first cousin, but being my sister, my best friend. Reminiscing about our childhood memories, sharing life stories, sharing tears and laughter, will be held as treasures. You were my inspiration, your strength and courage during your most difficult times, is to be honored, you were my “My Hero.” My heart is sad but at the same time, happy that you are now rejoicing, dancing, and singing with our Heavenly Father and Angels. Te quiero mucho siempre, Gracie Rojas Sanchez

Gracie - June 14, 2024 at 10:15 AM

JZ

“ Nelda was the best! For more than 40 years, we laughed, we cried, and then we would laugh some more. We shared all of our happy times and all of our sad times. And all the times we were just ticked off and frustrated!

😊 Most of our friendship was through phone calls, but I will miss her more than words can describe. I know she is finally at peace and resting in Jesus. †

Jody Zscheck - June 13, 2024 at 10:59 PM