

Nemat Karimi

May 15, 2025

Nemat Karimi, beloved husband, brother, father, and grandfather, passed in peace at the age of 86 in May of 2025. He was surrounded by his loved ones and will always be in our hearts and thoughts.

Born in Iran as the fourth child of eight to Fatima and Ali Karimi, he immigrated to the United States in 1977 in pursuit of a higher education. He was a graduate of the College of the Ozarks in Clarksville, Arkansas with a bachelor's degree in business and received his Masters of Business Administration from Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, New Mexico. He spent his career in food and beverage management, where he most enjoyed working at the Fame City / FunPlex entertainment complex in Houston.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Fatima and Ali Karimi, his sisters Ghadam Khair, Golabruz, Sakineh, and Zeynab and by his brother Abdullah.

He is survived by his wife, MJ, his children Anita and Stan, his five grandchildren, Lleyton, Mazen, Madelynn, Matthew and Grace along with his sisters Golabruz and Kadijeh and his brother Habib.

A memorial service to honor Nemat's life will be held on Tuesday, May 27, 2025 at the Magnolia Funeral Home in Magnolia, Texas.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Karimi family during this difficult time.
