“ My condolences to everyone who loved Oliver.

Oliver was a one of a kind person with a good heart who meant well. Oliver became a part of our family a few years back and we will always appreciate him for the love he showed us, especially my mother. Oliver could always say something goofy to make us laugh. He made watching baseball games fun, especially when the Astros were playing the Dodgers because there was so much trash talking. Because if you knew Oliver you know he loved his Dodgers. I always appreciated our talks because life isn't always easy and we could relate. Oliver was real and honest, true to himself and always spoke his mind, no matter what it was or how silly it was. Until we meet again friend, you will be missed.

“ The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

*6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. Amen I Love You

“ You can shed tears that he is gone, or you can smile because he has lived. You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back. or you can open your eyes and see all he's left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see him, or you can be full of the love you shared You can turn your back on tomorrow and Have yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember him only that he is gone, or you can cherish his memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back. Or you can do what he'd want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
