“ You will be missed... You were always so nice to me and treated me as your extended family. I remember the time Scott and I moved from NYC to the Dallas area. We went to your house to pick up Scott's furniture and you treated me like I was a princess..

“ My sweet Grammy,I remember holding your hand at home. I want you to know that I'm grateful you had the chance to raise me and teach to be a good person with good values. I truly believe you will always be my Mother.
You are gone for now. But you will nev
