

Patricia McMurtry

September 17, 2024

Patricia Bernice McMurtry, age 85 of Magnolia, TX passed away on Tuesday September 17th 2024.

Patricia moved to Magnolia a few years ago to be close to her cousin, Sylvia and her husband Nelbert Corgey. She was a member of First Baptist Church in Magnolia and the Crosstalk Sunday school class. She relied on teachers, various friends and her family to keep her connected to the outside world as her health deteriorated. She loved listening to music like Southern Gospel and of course Elvis. She loved to read, put puzzles together & sew handcrafted keepsakes. She made beautiful quilts, knitted and crocheted many blankets and baby booties. Patricia enjoyed holidays at the Corgeys' home, especially at Easter with the kids' egg hunt, Thanksgiving & Christmas. Family history was important to her as she tried to keep up with as many relatives as possible. She was preceded in death by her parents, Bill & Bernice McMurtry, and 2 brothers; Billy and Logan McMurtry. Patricia is survived by her cousin Sylvia (Nelbert) Corgey and their family, 7 Nieces & Nephews; Michael McMurtry, Susan Mills, Marianne Heckenkemper, Dolph McMurtry, Cynthia Haase, Kelly & Kevin McMurtry as well as a host of cousins.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the McMurtry family during this difficult time.

“ I’m so sorry to read of Patricia’s passing. We lost touch with each other the last couple years. I’m a cousin from the McMurtry side of the family, and always enjoyed our phone conversations. She always had a gentle, loving soul.
