“ Dear Leslie and Jimmy, you probably remember I first met your mom around 1983 when my sisters and I rented her home - the house you grew up in as it turned out. She was always gracious and kind to us, young and wild as we were back then... I realized she was a mother through and through, and I came to know both of you better because of that fateful occurrence. My deepest condolences on your loss. You'll see her again. Mary Kay
