January 28, 2015

Patricia Ann Stanley of Houston, Texas peacefully passed away on January 28, 2015 surrounded by her loving husband, James G. Stanley, and family. Patricia was born in Chicago, Illinois on April 5, 1929 to Joseph and Genevieve Peuvion. After growing up in Chicago, Illinois, she lived in South Bend, Indiana, Merritt Island, Florida, Seattle, Washington and Houston, Texas, amongst other parts of the country. She enjoyed a long career in the dental industry. In her spare time, she played bridge and, as she grew older, was a voracious reader of biographies and autobiographies. She enjoyed meeting people, learning new things, and loved to laugh. But most of all she loved her family and tirelessly took care of them. She delighted in her four children, six grandchildren, and four great grandchildren. Christmas was her favorite time of the year, and she made each one loving, warm, and filled with laughter. After each Christmas or any other family gathering at her home, she would always, without fail, walk outside her front door and wave goodbye until her family drove out of sight. She was a beautiful wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother who will be missed very much!!!

Patricia was preceded in death by her parents Joseph and Genevieve Peuvion. She is survived in death by her loving husband of forty-six years, James G. Stanley; sisters, Mary Lou Ekert and Eveleen Bettinardi; her sons, Wayne, Bruce, and Gary Virene; her daughter, Becky Van Eenenaam; her daughter-in-laws, Mia Virene and Terry Turon.
