“ Pat was my cousin and one of my closest friends. We grew up together. Pat was truly a kind soul and I'll miss him deeply. We had some really fun times together, mostly fishing and hunting. When we were late teenagers/early twenties, we filled that little jon boat up with fish time after time. We never came home empty handed. Although dropping the motor in the lake at the boat dock got us off to a rocky start on one trip. Guess what...Pat dove down, got the motor, put her on the boat and she started right up. Let's go fishing...That describes many of our trips. A lot of fun, but usually some adversity to overcome, which we always managed to come out of unscathed...to the surprise of our parents.

Pat...I'll always miss your giggly laugh. It brightened my own life. I'll always cherish the good times we had together. I will think of you every time I'm out fishing or hunting, especially at dawn, always a favorite way to start a day. I'll see you on the other side. Rest peacefully my friend. Oh...and hopefully there's no poison ivy in heaven. 😊

“ My best memories of dad are the summers we spent fishing with the whole family. I will carry those memories and share what I learned to my own family! I will miss him forever and I can't wait to fish with him again. Dad always had the best spots!

It's very tough to see a cousin pass that was not only a great guy but also younger. Patrick always had a smile on his face. We'll certainly going to miss him especially at our Wagner Christmas get togethers, but I'm sure he's in heaven visiting those relatives that passed before him. Rest In Peace Patrick!

Patrick, what a kind soul you were. Your beautiful smile and infectious laugh will not be forgotten. I will never forget the calls to make sure we were safe during the Bastrop fires, Or how you and Gary had to show the young ones how to play basketball at the Wagner Christmases. I know you are in heaven and there is no more suffering. What a big hole you have left in the family. You will live in our hearts forever. Godspeed my friend. Peace be with those you left behind.
