Following the Navy he joined his brother Jimmy Kendrick and began his "retired" career as an A/C & Heating Specialist where he worked for 30+ years before hanging up his HVAC hat. Along the way he taught his 3 sons and grandson the trade.

Ted was married to the mother of his children Betty Noreen Harrison- Kendrick for 40 years and together they raised their 4 children with strong family and Christian values. Together as a family everyone had a hand in caring for the family's precious gift from God, Kenneth Daniel Kendrick. A few years following he met and married his "Queen" Elizabeth Hayes-Kendrick. Together they began a beautiful journey together going on many motorcycle trips across the country on his beloved trike. He will always and forever be her "Tedder".

“ Ted (we always called him "Ted") and I go wayyy back to Burbank Jr. and Sam Houston Sr. High, where we shared in all the tomfoolery and adventures a youthful Northeast Houston teen naturally would, leaving many fond memories to ponder over a lifetime to come. Though, it is a very long long since he and I last met, I've never forgotten his kind, easygoing, goodhearted, and fun loving nature ... I never forgot Ted over the years.

Our lives paralleled in quite remarkable ways: We both joined the U.S. Navy and returned home to Houston, became Master Masons, both have three sons, and made our livings in the HVAC/Electrical trades.

Bless the all the Kendrick Family with great memories and happiness abounding: Husband, Father, Grandfather, and fine man to all he was to everyone he ever knew.

Peace be with thee, My Olde Schoolmate, Shipmate, Brother Mason, and Vet ... you shall be well thought of and warmly recalled by many ... of this, I am more than certain.

So mote it be, Br.: Ted Kendrick,

“ I'm so sorry for this loss. My memory of Ted is listening to my momma (Patsy Merle) sound so excited to see " Paul Ted" at our family reunions. Although i never had a chance to know him that well, I was around enough to know he was a fun loving , good man. My heart aches for those of you who will miss him so dearly. Treasure all the memories. Much love & prayers, Cindy Helm
