

Penny Webb

January 9, 2025

Penny was the pillar of her family and community of friends and colleagues. She is loved and will be missed by so many.

She was a wife, mother and friend. Penny had many hobbies and talents including crochet, sewing, gardening, herbal remedies, raising animals, and so much more. She was a talented insurance underwriter for over 3 decades and took pride in her work until the very end of her life.

Penny shared a wonderful 46 years with her loving and devoted husband, her Chucky Poo. They created a treasure trove of memories with their children and grandchildren, especially on some very spectacular vacations.

Most importantly, she was a child of God. She had a deep and everlasting faith in Jesus Christ and was very excited to be welcomed home by Him.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Penny's family and friends during this difficult time.

“ I find it incredibly hard to believe that you are no longer with us. Maybe the funeral will help it sink in. I've always tried to emulate you throughout life's simple tasks, I believe it's something that many daughter-in-laws tend to do. I promise to pass along your stories, your teachings and spirit on into the lives of my children, grandchildren and whom ever else I can. I admire how you lived life vivaciously, loved hard and pushed full force into your endeavors. In part I feel we had so much left unsaid yet I've come to realize that some things our hearts discussed without using words. I will miss you with my whole heart Penny Marie Webb.
Love, Amanda
