

Rachel Sims

October 25, 2023

Rachel Sims, 36, of Magnolia, Texas went home to be with her lord and savior Jesus Christ on October 25, 2023.

Rachel was born in Sioux City, Iowa on October 14, 1987, to Brian and Mary Brown. Not long after meeting at work in 2009, she married Brett Sims. Married for over 11 years, they shared in the joy of raising 2 beautiful children, Emerson and Kennedy Sims. Rachel was such a joy to be around, her love for her family and friends was enough to light up any room. Rachel had a heart of gold and would do anything for anyone. She loved all things water, boating, floating the river, or just laying on the beach! She had a passion for rescuing animals, oftentimes taking in pets in need. Rachel also had a love for pictures, anyplace she would go was a picture worthy spot, capturing every moment in life was so special to her, especially when it came to Kennedy and Emerson. Rachel was always the best listener, and would welcome anyone with open arms.

Rachel was loved by many, and will be deeply missed. We rest in knowing we will someday meet again!

Jeremiah 29:11

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Rachel's friends and family during this difficult time.

“ Our sweet Rachel... we are deeply saddened and heartbroken to hear of your passing away.

Our condolences to Brett, your babies, and family.

I remember your beautiful wedding day, the great times we all had living at Lake Conroe, garage sale shopping, and great family eat outs! I remember after Emerson was born. You were talking about working out and women in general getting their bodies back to normal after their child's birth. I said yes, I understand it is a struggle and takes time. You ask me how long it took me and how old was my son at the time. I said, I think about 15. You said months? I said years! We both bursted out laughing... we laughed so hard we were crying!!!

Your “Bright Sparkle” will be missed by many!!!

Hugs sweet girl....
