“ The first time I saw Randy was in 1962. His Dad, Walter, had fabricated a small 20” wheeled bicycle into this new cool bike called a “Stingray”. Randy raced down the sidewalk and jumped on the brake, leaving a long black stripe until he stop just millimeters from dropping off into the ditch that lay beyond the pavement. And thus was cast the mold for the way that Randy lived his life while I knew him; daring and bold. We grew up not 50 yards from each other through high school. We had many adventures too numerous to recount here. I will miss him and regret not being in touch with him in these later years.

“ Was so sorry to hear about Randy’s passing. He’s been a friend for well over 50 years. Heck I even married his cousin and was actually part of the family for a long time. We’ll miss you Randy. Maybe we can go rabbit hunting again someday in the great beyond.

“ I grew up with Randy on the same street. We spent many hours together riding bikes, playing basketball, and other things kids do. We occasionally would get to spend the night in his dad's camper. We thought that was big time. He was a very good athlete. He played quarterback in our Junior High School. Although I haven't seen him in many years I will always have fond memories of him from our childhood. Condolences to his family.

RIP Randy

David Smith former S. Adams friend.
