“ Only God could bring together a friendship like ours with BJ and Ray and their family. One year (1979) spent together every weekend in VA and then their move to Tomball. 45 years of a long distance friendship that miles and time could not change. More than friends -family! We'll surely miss our sweet weekly chats with Ray. Love, hugs, and prayers to Debbie, Steve and Stacey.

“ Ray and Barbara were so good to us when we lived by them!! They served as excellent role models for our children. Tracie would “run away from home” straight to their house when she got mad at her brother. We are thinking of you Stacey, Debbie, and Steve.

“ To the family, I am sorry for your loss.

Ray was a good man. My dad always said, "If you really want to know someone, go hunting or fishing them for a few days." Dad and Ray worked together, and hunted together for a long time. I had the great privilege of hunting with Ray for a couple of years, and I can guarantee that he was the kind of guy you'd want with you at the deer lease, atop a single-pole billboard, or in a fight where you both were outnumbered. Rest in peace, sir.
