

Raymond Lumbantobing

March 11, 2025

Raymond Lumbantobing, also known as Raymond Tobing, was born in Jakarta, Indonesia, to the late Sarmack and Pauline Tobing. He passed away peacefully on Tuesday, March 11, surrounded by his family and loved ones.

Raymond married the love of his life, Rosa, in Jakarta in 1992. It was during their time together that he introduced her to Jesus, a faith that became a cornerstone of their relationship. A dedicated and talented comptroller, he built a successful career in finance marked by integrity and commitment. In 1998, he left Jakarta and moved to Canada, where he embraced new opportunities before eventually settling in Houston in 2001. He built a life filled with love, kindness, and a dedication to his son, daughter, wife, sister, and more importantly The Lord.

Known for his humor, generosity, and gentle spirit, Raymond strived to inspire those around him to walk in the ways of Christ, all while bringing joy and laughter to their lives. He started a personal ministry where he was able to touch the lives of many people around the world with videos, daily scriptures, and bible study. Throughout his life, Raymond was passionate about his faith, and he always loved sharing the Good News with anyone he sees.

Raymond had a deep love for music that brought him joy and comfort throughout his life. Some of his favorite artists included Skeeter Davis, The Gaithers, The Booth Brothers, Jim Reeves, and The Heritage Singers. His appreciation for music was a reflection of his soul and he never stopped listening to spiritual songs.

Raymond is survived by his beloved wife, Rosa; his cherished children, Bryan and Audrey (and John). He is also survived by his sister, Dee, along with numerous uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Raymond's family and friends during this difficult time.
