

Regina Glowski

October 9, 2023

REGINA ANN GLOWSKI

Born: May 21, 1944, in Anderson , TX

Passed Away October 9, 2023, in Tomball TX.

A loving Wife, Mother, Grandmother, and Great Grandmother!

Regina is Preceded in death by her Husband of 57 years, Floyd S. Glowski Sr.

Regina is survived by children; Son Floyd S Glowski Jr. , Daughter Pamela Glowski and Husband Lynn Campbell, Daughter Michelle Hollier and Husband Brett Hollier. Grandchildren: Tyler C. Wornat and Husband Luke Wornat, Mikayla Morgan Boyd and Husband Chandler Boyd, Trinity Meagan Glowski, Madison Grace Hollier, and Hunter Brent Hollier and her Precious Great Grand Daughter Tyne Rae Wornat.

Also Surviving Regina are 2 Sisters Mary Berger and Theresa McCollum along with numerous nieces, nephews and friends!

Regina was selfless, considerate, compassionate, & giving. . A great mother, mimi, wife & friend. If you were one of the lucky ones, you probably got to hear her harmonica or guitar skills when her arthritis allowed her to play. In her last years she loved puzzles to “keep her brain sharp and smart”, and shopping at Walmart to buy her 12th bottle of lemon juice “just in case they stopped making it”. She also loved listening/singing to Elvis and Gospel Music. Her cooking was second to none! She was truly the epitome of a Mother !

She will be dearly missed, but as expected- followed closely behind her husband of 57 years. We love you Mimi/Mom & are so thankful and blessed for the years we were able to spend with you. 🙏

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Glowski family during this difficult time.

“ It's the love that's left behind that lasts forever, the joy of having been part of someone else's journey that warms our hearts...even at this difficult time.

Wishing you the comfort of that love and the peace of knowing it will never leave. In deepest sympathy.
