He was best known as Rick or Grandpa .

Rick always had a creative nature. It was revealed in all that he accomplished. His work in carpentry displayed his skill with wood to create beauty. Recently he had discovered he had a talent for jewelry making and a love of rock tumbling. His first love will always be his music. He loved to create and share with others. He inspired and taught many during his lifetime. He looked forward to gatherings around a campfire on the beach or one on one jam sessions at his house. To him it brought him so much joy. It was a heartfelt time listening to him share the magic of music. I know Rick would appreciate all his family and friends in sharing and raising a toast to these memories. His last wish was....Be happy, cry, laugh and tell lies about me.

The condolences of the Addison family and staff go out to his family and friends.
