

Rick Rancher

December 11, 2015

Rick died peacefully in his home in Magnolia, Texas on December 11, 2015, at the age of 64. He was surrounded by loved ones. He was born in Waco, Texas on March 2, 1951 to the late Leeroy and Maude Rancher.

Rick graduated from Stephen F. Austin State University in 1973 and began his career at the Texas State Library in Austin. He met his wife Cindy, in Austin, and they were married in 1976. The couple was blessed with two sons, Clint and Kevin.

Rick's career spanned over 30 years in the information technology field, culminating with a position at BP with systems responsibilities over Asia and the Americas.

Rick worshipped at First Baptist Church in Magnolia, where he was a Deacon and taught a Sunday School class.

Rick was a kind man who will be remembered for his quick wit, ready smile and infectious laugh. Rick will be greatly missed by the many friends and family that he leaves behind and fondly remembered by all who knew him. His loss will be deeply felt by a growing number of grandchildren who will miss their beloved Papa.

Rick is survived by his wife, Cindy; sons Clint Rancher and his wife, Jessica of Houston, Texas and Kevin Rancher and his wife, Amber of Broomfield, Colorado; grandsons Owen, Wesley and Elliot.

Tribute Wall

JE

“ John Elliott lit a candle in memory of Rick Rancher

John Elliott - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

BB

“ I have known Rick now for thirteen years as a neighbor. He loved his yard and spent many hours making it a showplace. He will especially be remembered for his love of others and his desire to help others he knew that needed help in their yards when they c

Ben Bivens - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

SG

“ Stephen Graham lit a candle in memory of Rick Rancher

Stephen Graham - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

MS

“ Mervin Shortt lit a candle in memory of Rick Rancher

Mervin Shortt - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM