

Ricky Clepper

September 7, 2023

At age 65, Rick passed away in a care facility in San Antonio, Texas on September 7, 2023. He was born in Tomball, Texas on June 9, 1958 to Ventis Clepper and Helen Maxine Bradshaw Clepper. Rick was always generous with his time and abilities. He was knowledgeable in numerous trades and never shied away from hard work. On many occasions he would work to near exhaustion to finish a job, task, or favor for family or friend. After the job was done, he would only accept a thank you. Beyond the tremendous love for his family and friends, Rick adored Tex-Mex Food with a nice spicy salsa. He would advise any Tex-Mex restaurant waiter to bring a spoon and salsa in the largest bowl they have in the kitchen. By the end of the meal, his face would be beaded with sweat to reveal the pains of bliss and contentment. Rick is survived by his son Joseph Clepper and wife Desirée; daughter Jennifer Clepper and husband Scott Richardson; granddaughter Mackenzie Clepper; grandson Malakye

Clepper; grandson Cormac Clepper; brother Jerry Clepper, sister Brenda Clepper, half-brother Jason Clepper; and half-sister Shawna Clepper Long.
He was preceded in death by his father Ventis Clepper and his mother Helen Maxine Bradshaw Clepper.
Mr. Charles Goodson will be the officiant of Mr. Clepper's Memorial Service.
Burial will occur at Macedonia Cemetery in Hockley, Texas.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Clepper family during this difficult time.
