“★ to a treasured soul who is loved by all who knew him in such a special way

Your daughter ScarletJane who never got to formally meet you, but has the special things about her that remind me of you- is now graduating highschool and becoming the most kindest little lady I've ever seen-she's been the most inspirational thing this heart could have hoped for. I'll forever be grateful a person like you lived even though it was just for a moment and all though I'll never think it was fair what happened to you, your legacy of who you were will always live on in so many of our hearts💕💕
