“Hi Zeke. Well, this not how I envisioned meeting up with you again. I have looked for you for years, but never came up with anything concrete. Then, just a few days ago I googled “Robert Zeke Chesney, Horseheads NY” and WOW I found your Facebook page. And there you were, sitting on a motorcycle. I knew immediately it was you. I’m sorry I didn’t find you sooner. Unfortunately, I’m not on FB so I had our daughter, Candice, check out your page. She came up with some videos of you at a church. I watched the one of you getting baptized. So anyway, there was so much I wanted to say to you, but I guess I’ll have to hope there is a next life and I can meet up with you then. For me, I never really had closure (hence why I’m writing now) and the thing I want you to know is that I have loved you from the moment I heard your voice and will love you through my last breath. I will remember you as my dark haired, brown eyed boy who made me laugh and cry. I’ll mostly remember the good times. For me, there were so many.

Mrs. Chesney, Charlotte, Claudia, and Susie, I am so sorry for your loss. I hope your lives have been peaceful and happy.

Dot Chesney Berry ( the first Mrs. Zeke Chesney)
