

Robert Thomas Weedn

March 1, 2023

On March 1, 2023 Robert Thomas Weedn took his own life after an ongoing battle with depression, forever leaving a hole in our hearts. He was born in Houston, Texas on Valentine's Day, February 14, 1997 to Robert Ribble Weedn and Susie Coffman Weedn.

While pursuing his talents in the concrete industry, maintaining his sobriety, continuously living his life to its maximum potential. Robert consistently worked to make the world a better place one beautiful idea at a time. He had a love for life, a love for his God and knack for making people smile. Being a successful entrepreneur like his parents, Robert was the definition of perseverance and loyalty. His spirit will forever remain a constant light, shining down upon everyone. Although occasionally, the biggest smiles hide the darkest sadness. Robert fell victim to something often unspoken of, mental illness.

Prior to leaving the committal ceremony, we ask all of Robert's immediate friends to surround Robert's Uncle Tiger, joining hands in a prayer circle and extend that invitation to all attendees.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Weedn family during this difficult time.

“ I've known Robert since he was 5 yrs old. He shared the same kindergarten class as my daughter. Robert was the cutest kid ever. We all knew he was special when he walked into class one day with his leather jacket with the collar up and his sun glasses with the biggest smile on at the age of 5. I used to call him cool daddy. He was a mess (good mess), I was the room mom that year for that class and on their trip to the zoo all the kids got off the bus but no Robert my daughter or another classmate, when I got onto the bus to check because I was freaking out Robert had both girls cornered in the back of the bus on the seat pushed all the way over trying to kiss them. He was soooooooo cute. Till the last day I saw him I called him cool daddy. He was a great kid!! He will forever be remembered as the beautiful person he is. My thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family and all his friends.
