*When Roberta was born my mother Lela Phillips, Aunt Ruby's sis, sent me at age 5yrs old to help Ruby and Uncle Ed with the new baby. I was good at caring for my siblings so mom sent me to help. Of course after a week I was missing my mom and when Uncle Ed found me crying because I wanted to go home. He hugged me and took me home. Roberta was a sweet, beautiful baby, much better than my siblings. I was happy to be home and Ed was my hero. I am 93 yrs living in the San Diego area. If any of the family wants to connect with us, we would love to have pictures and info to share with family.
