

Roger Lee Westfall

February 21, 1955 - April 4, 2019

The man, the myth, the Legend!

Roger Westfall was a loving and dedicated father who exemplified hard work and dedication to provide for his family. He was always ready to help a friend or stranger; and he instilled love, faith, and compassion into his children.

Saying Roger was an avid motorcycle enthusiast would be a big understatement, as riding was his passion and it gave him the greatest joy. His happiness and freedom from the open road was only second to the love that he had for his children and especially his grandchildren. There are many who he has touched and helped in so many ways. His love, guidance, and friendship will be truly missed. The world lost a bright light but Heaven gained an amazing angel. Ride free dad!

“ So sorry to hear of Uncle Roger's passing, the girls shared with me what was going on with him and I was sure holding you all up in prayer. I got to see a few pictures of him and Josie and I thought he looked a lot like Punkin. Lots and lots of thoughts about Uncle Roger, Aunt Penny, Punkin and Grandma and Grandpa have been running through my mind. I never knew the kids except through Josie and Jenny but my thoughts and prayers are with you too. It's such a hard time in our lives when we lose a loved one, so please know that my heart, thoughts and prayers are with you. Lean heavily on Jesus, He loves you.
