

Ronald Maynard

September 5, 2020

Ron Maynard, age 71 of Spring, passed away September 5, 2020, surrounded by his loving family. The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Ron's family during this difficult time.

Ron would be so honored for you to donate to the Spring Baptist Church Missions Fund in lieu of flowers. (One of the things the family liked about his final resting place at Magnolia Memorial Gardens are the white-tail deer, who like to eat the flowers). Checks can be mailed to Spring Baptist Church Missions Fund in honor of Ron Maynard, at 633 E. Louetta Rd., Spring, Texas 77373.

Ronald David Maynard ("Ronnie") was born in Overton, Texas, to Joyce Estelle McGee Maynard and Horace Lenard Maynard. He is the big brother to Glen Maynard and Nancy Maynard Turnipseed. He was preceded in death by his father. He is survived by his wife, Jeanie, two sons, Clint and Ryan, daughter-in-law, Vanessa, and five grandchildren, Hunter, Kahryn, Isaiah, Davin and Sophia.

Ron's family moved to Kenedy, Texas, from Beaumont, when his dad was transferred by Gulf Oil Company. After graduating from Kenedy High School he attended and graduated from Beeville Junior College, then from Sam Houston State University in Huntsville with a BS in Social Services/Social Rehab. He and Jeanie married in May 1975 by Bro. Max Brown at First Baptist Church, Huntsville, Texas and moved to Pleasanton, Texas, where he worked for Bexar County MHMR as an alcoholism counselor.

After their first son, Clint Daniel, was born they moved to Kenedy, Texas, where Ronnie worked as an adult Probation Officer. During that time he had the honor of being the youngest ordained deacon at First Baptist Church and served alongside his dad.

Time off was spent with family and friends camping, tubing, boating, water skiing, horseback riding, flying, riding dirt bikes, and fishing.

Eventually Ronnie went to work for Fox Photo and their family moved to Corpus Christi, Texas. There Ryan Nathan was born and within three years they moved to Houston, where he worked as an Adult Probation Officer until retirement.

He was an active member of Spring Baptist Church and was honored to participate in choir. Music was his passion. He was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.

“ I was one of his caregivers and we became friends from day one. He was gentle and very loving ❤️. He called me his BUDDY and everyday when I arrived he wanted to be the one to open the door for me. We shared many hugs, walks daily and prayed together when we sat to eat. He will be missed. Lori Heard

“ Dear Jeanie and Family,

I send my heartfelt sympathies to you for the loss of your loved one.

I know Ronnie was a great and faithful husband and father. I remember Ronnie as deeply kind, wise, and calm. He was a good counselor to all who knew him, so I know he must have been extraordinary in his professional life.

Ronnie was such a good man - full of faith, love, music and fun.

I look forward to seeing Ronnie again in Heaven where he is now, fully healed and whole, and surely singing before the great throne of God!

I pray the comfort of the Holy Spirit on you, Jeanie, as you do the hard work of mourning and grief. I know Ronnie is extremely proud of you. You are running this race well, my friend.

I send you my abiding love and respect,

Terry

“ The first time I met Ron & Jeannie was at a Sunday School party at my house. They had visited the week before & we fell in love with them. Their boys & my youngest were about the same age. I was so sad when they left our church, Autumn Creek Baptist, but we have many good memories of them. God Bless your family. We know he is in a better place & is waiting for you Jeannie. Praying for the family. Richard & Barbara Beaumont

“Ronnie was the sweetest guy. When He and El joined our church and came into our College & Career group we were so excited. They brought fun and laughter with them. Of all the guys in the world, Ronnie and El were the best. Best friends, best boyfriends, because we all dated each other (lol,) and the most respectful gentlemen around. We laughed, we sang, we fellowshiped and loved the Lord together. It's hard to speak of one without the other because they were inseparable. From hayrides to Valentine's Day banquets, they were there bringing the joy and fun. Jeanie, when you came along Ronnie took his eyes off any of the rest of us and we realized he had to share him and let him go. He only had eyes for you! We came to love you equally as much as we loved him. We rejoiced when each baby boy was born and thought of you all often. Our hearts are broken but our joy is in knowing he's whole now and is resting in the arms of Jesus. We love you all and you're in our deepest thoughts and prayers.

“ Mr. Maynard was a kind, honest, and direct man. Whenever his son, Ryan, and I did something that he didn't approve of, it wasn't his anger I was afraid of but his disappointment. He was that kind of man. I looked up to him as I did my own father. May his soul rest in peace

“ Jeanie- I have so many memories with you and Ronnie and our children. You and Ronnie have played a important part in my life. Our vacations, game nights, church , children playing together. Many years of love and fellowship. I will never forget how you and Ronnie were there for me when Wyatt died. Ronnie and Wyatt were best friends. I loved Ronnie's laugh and his sound Christian advice. May God give you and your family comfort. Love you and miss Ronnie.

“ I first meet Ron in choir at Spring Baptist Church.
Our friendship hit it off because of our background.
I majored in music and loved to waterski in my younger years.
I mentioned to Ron that my wife , Betty, had lost a ring. At that time we thought it was dropped out in the yard while my wife and I had mowed and weed rated the yard.
Ron’s first reaction was, Let’s go hunt it. I had a metal detector and we were going to comb the yard for that ring.
The next morning, Ron was at my home about 8:30 and we began combing our yard. I found the ring two years later under my wife’s recliner.
When Rod got to the point that he couldn’t drive, I made sure Ron got to choir practice and back home.
Many times Aron at I would go eat during the day, and when I got him hom, I would always call Jeannie to let her know that Ron was back home.
I was an honor to know Ron as my best friend and I’ll never forget him.
When I returned him home, he would always say.
“ Thanks, Pete, I love you, brother.
My response was , you are welcome,Ron, love you my friend. I will forever miss him
Pete Holland.
